To whom it may concern

Testimonial to Rosie Callaway, Best of Both Bookkeeping Service.

I am intuitive, empathetic, creative and of a supportive and caring nature; all the qualities you would expect to find in a therapist. However, as a self-employed business person these qualities do not lend themselves well to fiscal discipline.

Rosie has helped me enormously over the past year, both in terms of tidying up the chaos of my financial record keeping and putting right the anomalies created by my attempts at bookkeeping.

She provides the behind the scenes structure for my financial management and her monthly reporting means I am aware of my business performance.

I thoroughly recommend her services. It is like having a full-time financial director on the staff without the salary costs.

Yours sincerely
